

SCHOOL MATINEE PERFORMANCES

Weathervane Playhouse is dedicated to the belief that young people should have the opportunity to participate in theatre both as audience members and as artists. Through this program we use live performances to awaken, enliven and challenge the minds of students with issues both interesting and relevant to our time.

School Matinee Productions include:

- A study guide to prepare for the performance and enhance your theatre experience
- Reduced price tickets ($7.00 per student/teacher)
- An optional post-performance talk-back with actors, director, and technical staff

2018-2019 Matinee Performance Season

A drama by Simon Stephens
Adapted from the novel by Mark Haddon
Christopher, 15 years old, stands beside Mrs Shears's dead dog. Christopher is under suspicion. He records each fact in the book he is writing to solve the mystery. He has an extraordinary brain, but he is ill-equipped to interpret everyday life. But Christopher's detective work takes him on a frightening journey that turns his world upside-down.

Lyrics by Tim Rice
Music by Andrew Lloyd Webber
The Biblical saga of Joseph and his coat of many colors comes to vibrant life in this delightful musical parable! Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a re-imagining of the Biblical story of Joseph. Set to an engaging cornucopia of musical styles, from country-western to pop and rock 'n' roll, this tale emerges both timely and timeless.

Book and lyrics by Tom Eyrn
Music by Henry Krieger
Act I is set in the fabulous 1960s, a time when we were dancing to the new beat of countless girl and boy groups. Dreamgirls is also about the behind-the-scenes reality of the entertainment industry. Act II shows the creation and the arrival of disco. The subject matter of this play deals with a musical contribution to America of such importance that only now, decades later, are we beginning to understand.

Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett, newly adapted by Wendy Kesselman
In this transcendentally powerful new adaptation by Wendy Kesselman, Anne Frank emerges from history a living, lyrical, intensely gifted young girl, who confronts her rapidly changing life and the increasing horror of her time with astonishing honesty, wit, and determination. This is a new adaptation for a new generation.
