Youth Education

Weathervane offers professionally taught classes in acting, stagecraft, musical theatre, improvisation and design for children up to age 18. Fall and spring classes are held on Saturdays and Tuesdays evenings. Two-week Hands-on Theatre (H.O.T.) workshops are offered throughout the summer. The cost is minimal with a limited number of scholarships available and discounted fees for Weathervane members.

Children may also audition for roles in productions. Casting is not dependent upon class enrollment. Participation is an extension of valuable training in every facet of production from the audition process to technical and performance experience. Family members may also have learning opportunities by participating in such productions.

Weathervane works with area schools by providing outreach information and study guides as part of our Project STAGE© program, which brings public and private school students to see as many as five productions each season. This season, Fences, All My Sons and Romeo &

Juliet will be featured in the Project STAGE© events. Tickets are $8.

For information about classes or audition schedules for Youth Productions, please call our Director of Education at 330-836-2323.

Adult Classes

Professionally taught adult theatre classes have included classical drama, improvisation, scenic design, transformational acting, dance, stage lighting and directing. These classes help actors expand their performance and public speaking skills. Look in the education brochure for this year's classes.

Learning On the Job

Every production participant becomes part of Weathervane's continuing education process. You'll learn from experienced volunteers who share the creation of production and performance. If you don't have time for structured classes, sign on to become a crew member or performer. We'll help you expand your knowledge of backstage and onstage responsibilities.

Patron

Generosity

Weathervane appreciates the continuing strong support of individuals, corporations, foundations and other donors who help finance the theater's operations, capital improvements and endowment program. Weathervane is classified as a 501(c)(3) organization and contributions are tax deductible. Following are some of the many ways in which you can take pride in your support of the art of theater in our community.

 Become a Weathervane Member

Your annual support makes you a voting member of Weathervane Community Playhouse. You'll receive discounts on educational programs and other benefits, based on the membership level you choose. Members are invited to Weathervane's annual meeting and to other special events. Memberships are renewable annually, beginning at $75 (Contributing), and continuing at Sustaining, Patron, Silver, Gold, Platinum and Diamond Levels. Membership is actively solicited in the fall but is accepted at any time. Members are recognized in the Playbill.

 Give a Special Gift To Say You Care

Special donations may be made at any time to memorialize a friend or relative whose interest in Weathervane was significant to his or her life. You may also recognize and celebrate important dates or current achievements of relatives, friends or associates.

 Remember Weathervane in Your Will

What better way to carry on your tradition of support to Weathervane than by a planned gift. By taking advantage of the tax laws which encourage charitable giving, the U.S. Government will share in the cost of your gift to Weathervane. Your gift can fulfill a specific purpose or project while providing your estate with tax savings. To help ensure that Weathervane will continue, please contact our Executive Director for more information.

 Check For Matching Gifts

Many national and local corporations will match your donations to Weathervane, increasing your generosity to the theater. Please check whether or not your company participates in such a program.

 Designate Gifts To Local Foundations

Several of this area's larger foundations accept memorial and tribute gifts in the name of specific organizations such as Weathervane Community Playhouse. Such gifts help assure continuing grants to the theater's operations and special projects. We are enormously grateful for the impressive history of foundation support in this community.

 Sponsor or Underwrite a Production

Our productions may be underwritten by local corporations or foundations. Benefits can include private "command performances" and special receptions for employees and friends when your business chooses this important method of support. Please call 330-836-2626. We'd like to discuss this kind of opportunity with you.

 Capital Project

The construction segment of the Capital Project in 2000 included a scene shop with basement storage, a 2nd-floor classroom and rehearsal hall, soundproof production booth, elevator and fly gallery pocket above the stage and installation of the rigging system for the fly gallery. Donations for Stage Two of the project continue to purchase classroom furnishings, update the lighting system, renovate the lobby and replenish the Capital Fund for maintenance and repairs.

History From the Barn to the Valley

Four society women urged Weathervane Playhouse into existence in 1935 - Grace Hower Crawford, Laurine Schwan, Helen Troesch and Muriel Maclachlan. They started with amateur theatricals at Coach House Theater, then as now part of Akron Woman's City Club. Back then Coach House was a club theater with closed membership and profits going back to the club. This left nothing for theatrical expansion or experimentation, so the ladies set up shop in a barn owned by U.S. Senator Charles Dick on Marshall Avenue. They had no money so they planned a carnival. After expenses, they cleared $65 and declared themselves good to go.

Friends assisted in cleaning the barn that had been a garage for the Senator's cars. They scrounged for seats, curtains and a coffee pot. Seven fully costumed and staged plays were presented during the first three weeks of the summer of 1935. The audience applauded while bringing cushions from home to sit on -- the benches were hard. There was no running water or heat in the barn, but the operation had a name -- Weathervane, named for the chandelier on the cupola of the barn. The ladies agreed that they would produce everything -- comedy, tragedy, Shakespeare, new works -- even opera. They also decreed that anyone who fit a part could be on their stage.

"The barn" was home until 1951 when it was sold, leaving the troupe homeless. The Board renovated a cement block building on Copley Road. This served until the late 1960's when the troupe moved to the Valley. In the early years, directors came from the membership and were charged with casting, costumes, settings and publicity. By 1960, there were so many shows that Bob Belfance was hired as theater director. Along with custodian/ticket manager Nora Scott, the two-person staff relied on volunteer support.

A Women's Board was formed in 1938 to offer volunteer and financial assistance. The Youth Theater Workshop grew out of classes offered by the original founders. Muriel Maclachlan was particularly energetic in teaching children, bringing in experts in dance and voice to assist her in teaching the youngsters. Muriel's classes grew until they became today's Education Department. Project STAGE®, a program with reduced-price, school day matinees for students, was added in the early 1990s.

A fund-raising drive in the late 1960s built the present facility on Weathervane Lane. The Playhouse opened in 1970 with Maggie Moore's production of Dark of the Moon. Grace Crawford, who died in 1971, left a legacy to pay off the mortgage. Construction made possible by the most recent Capital Campaign added classrooms, rehearsal space, scene shop, additional prop storage, elevator, library, fly gallery, stage mechanics, a sound-proof production booth and a costume shop, and also upgraded the roof and HVAC system.

Weathervane celebrated its 500th Mainstage production with the award-winning The Laramie Project in February, 2003. The John L. Dietz Classroom Theater for students and black box productions had its inaugural production as part of our 70th Season, opening with Angels in America: Millennium Approaches in January 2005.

Women's Board

The Women's Board was formed in 1938 to "offer voluntary service and financial assistance to the Playhouse." Women's Board has energized youth education programs, sponsored productions, spearheaded fund raisers and paid for many of the amenities we appreciate in the Green Room/kitchen. Members of this active group are invaluable as hostesses, office helpers and backstage. The Women's Board sponsors an annual puppet presentation for children and also operates the Gift Boutique and Bank One Art Gallery.

New members are welcomed.

About the Playwright

Jason Robert Brown

Jason Robert Brown is a Tony-winning author for his score to Parade in 1999. His off-Broadway show, Songs for a New World, was a huge cult hit and his reputation in the United Kingdom has been boosted by two sellout shows at the Players Theatre in the last year. His score for The Last Five Years is hugely imaginative and full of variety and humour. Jason's first solo album, Wearing Someone Else's Clothes, featuring his band, The Caucasian Rhythm Kings, is available from Sh-K-Boom Records. His collaboration with singer, Lauren Kennedy, Songs of Jason Robert Brown, is available on PS Classics. Jason's piano sonata, Mr. Broadway, was commissioned and premiered by Anthony De Mare at Carnegie Hall and he is writing a string quartet to be premiered in 2006. His next theater project, 13, a musical comedy written with Dan Elish, is in development at the Los Angeles Center Theatre Group.

Jacqi Loewy (Director) happily returns to WCP having directed Little Shop of Horrors, The Fantasticks, Proof, The Rocky Horror Show, and the award-winning The Laramie Project. Jacqi was onstage at Weathervane in Six Degrees of Separation and Prelude to a Kiss. She is the Artistic Director of Charenton Theater Company, (Cleveland's premier small theater). Originally from New York, her directing career began in 1979 for Madison Square Garden's and Warner Brothers' international productions of The Bugs Bunny Follies. Broadway choreography credits include I Married an Angel (starring Tony-winners Karen Ziemba and Phyllis Newman) and Just So (starring Tony-winner Andre de Shields). Locally, recent direction includes the world premiere of V-E Day (Dobama and The Cleveland Play House Next Stage), Constellations (Case Western Reserve University), Berlin to Broadway, The Fantasticks and She Loves Me (Lyric Opera Cleveland), Look Back in Anger (Charenton), The Eight: Reindeer Monologues (Cleveland Public Theatre), Shaw's Overruled, Mamet's Speed-the-Plow (The University of Akron), And the World Goes Round, Crimes of the Heart, Bad Dates, Charlie Brown, The Nerd (Solon Center for the Arts), The Fantasticks (Willoughby Fine Arts) and AVAIL4 (Playhouse Square). Next up: The Nutcracker at The Cleveland Play House and the world premiere of Stars Fell All Night at Cleveland Public Theatre. She will return to WCP to direct The Full Monty in the spring.

Jacqi conceived and shares writing credit on Mr. Lewis Rules: Stories from the Juvenile Justice System (commissioned by Weathervane Playhouse) starring Myron J. Lewis. She was the Artistic Supervisor and Production Stage Manager for Cleveland's longest-running show, Tony n' Tina's Wedding at Playhouse Square and is represented by The Talent Group as a commercial and film actress. A proud member of AEA, she holds a Master of Arts degree in directing, a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in musical theatre and is grateful for all of the fabulous collaborations in her life. Thank you for supporting live theatre.

Jordan Cooper (Musical Director) has been a part of the Weathervane Community Playhouse Family for many, many years. He was first seen on the Weathervane stage, at 12 years old, as the Mad Hatter in Alice in the Wonderful Tea Party and then again as Col. Pedro in last season's production of Much Ado About Nothing. He has been involved back stage as Properties Co-Designer for Wait Until Dark, Assistant Stage Manager for Crowns and his costume designs will be featured in this season's production of Joseph... Above all else, music is his passion. He has been the Musical Director for Cinderella, The Sound of Music and Annie Get Your Gun for Dynamics Theater, School House Rock Live, Jr. for Firestone High School, Grease for Copley Independent Theater Company and he was the Assistant Musical Director for Cabaret at Ashland University. Despite playing for numerous productions in past seasons, he is proud to be making his Weathervane musical directing debut. He would like to thank Jacqi, Drew, Joanna, Bill and Corie for being a dream to work with and especially his family for their constant support.

Cast and Backstage Callboard

JOANNA MAY HUNKINS (Cathy) is making her Weathervane debut. A graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, she has previously been seen as Soupy Sue in Urinetown, Susan in The Full Monty (Beck), Eve in Children of Eden (the Players Guild), Woman One in And the World Goes 'Round (Solon) and several roles at Mercury Summer Stock where she also serves as Company Manager. Joanna could not be more excited to be part of this show, having seen the original production and attending multiple master classes with composer, Jason Robert Brown. She thanks Jacqi, Jordan, Drew, Bill, Kim, Brooke, Ron, Patrick, family and friends for their encouragement and you, the audience, for supporting live theatre! For you, the inspiration within.

ANDREW ROTHMAN (Jamie) has been seen in a variety of theatrical and musical venues around northeast Ohio. His most recent appearance was this past spring in Chagrin Valley Little Theatre's I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change!, for which he received an award from the Ohio Community Theatre Association. Previous roles have included Eugene in Biloxi Blues, Seymour in Little Shop of Horrors and Rapunzel's Prince in Into the Woods. He is also a regular cast member of Those Seven Little Words, a cabaret. This is his first appearance at Weathervane Playhouse. Andrew currently serves on the Board of Directors at Chagrin Valley Little Theatre, where he handles publicity and website/graphic design. When time allows, he can be found singing behind his drums or acoustic guitar at various Cleveland-area venues. He currently works for Main Sequence Technologies, Inc. (makers of PCRecruiter software) as web designer and jack-of-all-trades. He thanks "The Three Js" for sharing this amazing work with him, and dedicates his performance with best wishes to the new Mr. & Mrs. Vargo, and with love to his own 'Shiksa Goddesses', Kristan Oelbracht. www.AROthman.com

BILL BERRY (Stage Manager) has performed on numerous stages across Northeast Ohio, appearing in such shows as The Real Thing, Into the Woods, Baby, Chicago, The Music Man, Godspell and Pippin, to name a few. He has appeared on the Weathervane stage in the award-winning production of The Laramie Project and as El Gallo in The Fantasticks. Most recently, he portrayed Captain Georg von Trapp in The Sound of Music. He also served as Stage Manager for the WCP production of The Grapes Of Wrath. Last November, he made his directoral debut in Wadsworth with the Galaxy Players' production of Seussical - The Musical. Other recent theatre credits include Schroeder in You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown and Warnock "Ticky" Waldgrave in The Nerd, both at Solon Center for the Arts, Man 2 in Lakeland Theatre's run of Stephen Sondheim's Putting It Together, and Assistant Stage Manager for the Weathervane Playhouse production of Lend Me A Tenor. He is currently production stage manager for Mr. Lewis Rules: Stories from the Juvenile Justice System, which was recently performed as part of the Big [Box] Series at Cleveland Public Theatre in January 2006. In 2003, he served as production stage manager for the world premiere of V-E Day at Dobama Theatre. He is a performer with Mysteries By Moushey and, during the day, works as a Risk Associate for Allstate Insurance Company. A big thanks to you, the audience, for supporting the arts in your community!

CORIE LINT (Cello) has been playing piano for ten years and cello for nine years. She has been a member of various orchestras and chamber ensembles, currently serving as the assistant principal cellist in the Cleveland Orchestra Youth Orchestra. Theater has intrigued her for many years, and she was thrilled to have the chance to play in a pit orchestra for the first time last year at the Beck Center in Lakewood. Corie is a senior at Woodridge High School and plans to pursue a double degree in music and journalism in college next year. She enjoys reading, running, eating and listening to alternative rock in the little spare time she has. Thanks to Mom and Dad for all the driving and crazy scheduling, and Jordan for the opportunity to play this amazing show.

MARK A. ZIMMERMAN (lighting designer) is the Chanticleer Award-winning lighting designer for The Rocky Horror Show, also under the direction of Jacqi Loewy, in addition to dozens of other productions at Weathervane Playhouse and beyond. He has lit three shows for the award-winning cabaret artist Kate Loitz here and looks forward to more.

Zimmerman is proud to design lights in the John L. Dietz Classroom Theatre especially because this show has been underwritten by a kind and gentle woman he greatly admires -- Margaret Dietz. He is married to Elynmarie Kazle and helps to raise their eleven-year-old, Banno.

DAVID B. COOPER (Costume Designer) made his official Weathervane debut as costume designer for last season's Crowns. David is chair of WCP Production Board and chair of our costume departments. As a professional hairstylist in Tallmadge for 18 years, he also keeps busy working with area middle and high schools designing hairstyles for their theater productions. Designing for the Carousel Dinner Theatre is also on his list of credits. David has performed with local theater groups and enjoys singing in Gospel choirs. He is a proud parent of Alison and Jordan, who are also Weathervane performers and crew members. A special thank you to the GREAT costume ladies for all their support and encouragement!

About Your Interim Leadership

Ian Haberman is your newly-appointed Interim Artistic Director and has the overall responsibility for ensuring that Weathervane continues to produce high-quality theatrical entertainment for the actors, technicians, volunteers, friends and audience members who comprise the Weathervane family. In that capacity he will, among many other responsibilities, work with directors, meet with the Production Board and represent Weathervane in the community.

Ian's involvement with Weathervane began in 1982 when he was cast in a production of The Royal Family. In the nearly 25 years since that first on-stage appearance, he has been involved in a variety of capacities including acting in about 20 different plays and musicals, designing and running sound for shows, directing two Women's Board Christmas productions, serving as a member of the Board of Trustees for four, three-year terms. He also was President of the Board in the early 1990s and has chaired the Play Selection Committee for many years.

Ian is a lawyer in Medina. He holds a B.A. degree from Brown University and an M.A., Ph.D. and J.D., all from Case Western Reserve University.

Janis L. Harcar is your newly-appointed Interim Executive Director and has the overall responsibility for ensuring that Weathervane continues its day-to-day operations. In that capacity she will carry out the current programs and implement the calendar of events; oversee and provide guidance, support and discipline for the professional staff; monitor progress on staff goals and objectives; monitor expenses to guide the Playhouse staff and volunteers with the use of the annual budget and oversee care taking of the physical plant (with the maintenance team). Jan is helping to plan new programs for the current season as well as for 2007-2008. She also continues in her staff position of Director of Marketing & Development.

Jan's involvement with Weathervane began in the Spring of 1993. Since the summer of 1993 she has been a full-time employee. She holds a B.S. degree in music education from Kent State University and an M.A. in arts administration from The University of Akron. She has been musical director for Weathervane for Annie and Company and appeared onstage as a pianist in All Night Strut.

In the Bank One Visual Arts Gallery

If you saw Over the Tavern or Fences, you may have glanced through the retrospective exhibit of plays presented during the time Bob Belfance was Managing/Artistic Director for the Playhouse. Our audience has enjoyed reminiscing about shows they saw during the 30 years when Bob was producing at Weathervane, so Marci Paolucci, Gallery Director, has elected to continue the show through the run of Fences. These plays include some of the productions that Bob believes represent the finest examples of solid, excellent theater.

This exhibit would not have been possible without the assistance of The University of Akron's Bierce Library. My thanks to Roger Durbin, Ph.D., Associate Dean, University Libraries; John V. Miller, Director, Archival Services; Craig Holbert, Archives Associate; and Oliver Corrigan, Research Assistant.

Volunteer Responsibilities

Here's a quick introduction to the responsibilities volunteers undertake to make our shows work. If you'd like to try your hand at any of these jobs, please call us. We'll help you learn! Volunteers with 100 hours or more of service are eligible for a special Weathervane membership!

 Stage Management Duties include assisting the director throughout the rehearsal period, calling cues, keeping backstage safe and orderly, and coordinating the technical needs of the show with the actors. A great opportunity for those who enjoy planning, communicating and taking charge. Once the director's work is done, it's the Stage Manager who runs each performance.

 Set Construction Use your building skills, carpentry or painting techniques to help make illusion come to life. Help is needed days and evenings.

 Costumes Designers and workers are vital. We invite skilled and unskilled seamstresses to make or alter costumes, create patterns, care for costumes during a show and keep our wardrobe department organized.

 Lighting Experience is a plus, but you can learn by assisting others who know computers and electrical requirements. We'll train eager volunteers to help hang, focus and add color to lighting instruments. We'll also teach you how to run the light board and follow spots. Nobody can see the show without you.

 Sound Create the music and sound effects tapes that enrich the aural environment for each show or add "live" backstage sound. Run the sound system for technical rehearsals and productions.

 Properties All the items that help "dress" a set and all those used by actors in rehearsal and performance (from tea sandwiches to "deadly" weapons and "shattering" windowpanes) must be borrowed, built or cooked. Many volunteers are needed to work on each performance.

 Office Volunteer If you enjoy dealing with the public, we can use your help during office hours and on show nights to assist in taking money and answering the phone to take reservations. You may also help with mailings, work with staff, and greet customers and visitors.

 Ushering Welcome audience members with your smile, show them to their seats, pass out programs, and serve refreshments at intermission. Your help is always welcome.

 House Manager This representative greets the audience, tears tickets and guides theater-goers to ushers for seating. You'll work with the stage manager to coordinate the timing of intermissions and remain in the lobby throughout the show to handle any emergency.

Supporting Our Community Through Education, Research, Service.

Who Gets On Stage?

Our volunteer performers come from throughout greater Akron and northeastern Ohio. They've committed themselves to four or more weeks of rehearsals plus performances. Their greatest reward is your applause.

Many performers come with substantial theatrical experience. Others are new to the stage. Auditions are open to all and our non-traditional casting policy opens the way for many performance opportunities. Except in cases where race, gender, age or disability is essential to the play, all roles are cast on the basis of talent.

Local newspapers carry audition dates and times or call Weathervane at 330-836-2626 to be added to the audition mailing list. Some directors prefer to set appointments for audition times and may ask that you come prepared with a brief monologue, improvisational subject or musical number. Copies of plays scheduled or audition scenes are often available for a nominal deposit.

When you arrive at the theater on audition nights, you'll learn about the rehearsal and performance schedule. You may also register as a production volunteer if you're interested in learning about the technical opportunities in the show.

You may be asked to return for callbacks and will be notified of the director's cast selection as soon as possible. Please note that if you don't win the role you've wanted so badly, it may not necessarily reflect on your talent. The director's choice of cast members must take many factors into account to develop the proper "relationships," style and reality of the ensemble. Don't be discouraged.

Volunteering at Weathervane

Weathervane began as a volunteer organization and continues its growth thanks to the time and talent that members of our community invest in it. Our on-stage performers have worked long and hard to earn your applause. But their work is supported by many other unseen men and women who've helped build and paint sets, run the lights and sound, make sure that properties and set dressing items are in their proper places and do other backstage labor from stage managing to costuming and make-up. Supporting those who are actively involved in putting on each show are still more volunteers who usher, house manage, sell tickets, keep our office running and serve on our Board of Trustees, Board committees, Production Board and Women's Board.

Their spirit is the backbone of our continuing operations, a valued support on which our professional staff relies.

Each month, we acknowledge the outstanding Volunteers of the Month in our lobby, but those volunteers represent all who commit their time and interest to create a great theater experience for everyone who's come to see this show.

If you have friends or relatives who volunteer generously at Weathervane, we hope you'll take a moment to thank them for their help and their support of the cultural enrichment of our community. Better yet, join them! Call us and we'll help you win your own share of the applause for a "jolly good show," an experience that offers unique challenges with every performance.

Share the Annual Chanticleer Celebration

Let's talk Chanticleer! Shortly after the final production of each season, Weathervane volunteers, subscribers and friends share an exciting awards show and party to acknowledge outstanding work by performers and technical volunteers. And, if you have seen all of the six Mainstage productions, you are eligible to be a judge!

The top performers, as chosen by the Chanticleer "judges," are awarded rooster statuettes -- "Chanticleers" -- in recognition of their work. It's a great night to get together and share in the fun and festivities. The Chanticleer Awards event is open to all.

Awards are presented for outstanding lead performances in a drama or comedy, outstanding lead performances in a musical, outstanding featured and supporting performances in a drama or comedy, outstanding featured and supporting performances in a musical and outstanding achievement in sound design, lighting design, properties design and costume design. The final award of the Chanticleer evening goes to the Best Production of the season.

In addition to performance and technical awards, the event also recognizes the Top 25 outstanding volunteers of the season, who represent all the volunteers whose time and talents create the memorable theater experiences of every Weathervane season.

We welcome you to take part in the biggest nail-biting party of the year. Make sure to pick up your ballot at the end of the season and join us!

Beware of the Dreaded No-Show

Have you ever seen empty seats at a sold out sporting event or concert? Weathervane has the same problem. Subscribers who may have exchanged from another performance wonder why they weren't given those prime empty seats for the evening.

When you buy a subscription, you are promising to come to the theater for that ticketed performance and we hold your seat(s). This makes it impossible to tell if a performance is ever really sold out and annoys other ticket buyers who see that they could have been seated in a better spot.

Subscribers: Please call the Ticket Office at 836-2626 if you will not make your ticketed performance. Thank you.

Weathervane Traditions

Meet the cast Many cast members spend a few minutes in the lobby area to meet and greet friends after performances. It's your chance to thank them for their performance.

Intermission Tea is served with our compliments by our volunteers. Soft drinks are available at a nominal cost.

Opening Night Receptions welcome audiences on Main Stage first Friday performances. We provide light refreshments after the show so you can share in the celebration.

For your sweet tooth snacks are available for purchase before the show and during intermission. Refreshments (other than water) are not permitted in the auditorium.
